IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that each party shall file a current Affidavit of Financial Information and present a copy to this Division no later than five (5) days prior to the Trial. Each party shall ensure that the opposing party receives a copy of the Affidavit of Financial Information in accordance with the discovery and disclosure deadlines set forth herein.

4. The parties shall promptly comply with all requests for relevant information in this case. In this regard, the parties shall sign all necessary consents and releases reasonably required to obtain any relevant documents or records from any financial institution/company or business/medical or health care provider/employer possessing any relevant information.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the failure of counsel and/or either party to appear at the time of hearing, or to timely present the Joint Pre-Hearing Statement in proper form shall, in the absence of good cause shown, result in the imposition of any and all available sanctions pursuant to Rule 70(D), A.R.F.L.P. and Local Rules 6.2(e) and 6.9(b), including proceeding to hear this matter by default based upon the evidence presented by the appearing party.

NOTICE:

You may request conclusions of fact and law on the following issues, if contested: child custody, relocation requests, spousal maintenance, community property, community debt, and child support. To request conclusions of fact and law, you must file a written request with the Court before the trial or evidentiary hearing. If you make a written request before the trial or evidentiary hearing, the Court will make conclusions of fact and law as part of the final decision. If any party asks the Court to make findings of fact and law on any issue, each party must file written proposed findings of fact and law on those issues. The proposed findings must also be submitted in an electronic form that is editable, preferably Microsoft Word. The proposed findings must be submitted with the Pretrial Statement.

Information regarding trial procedure for parties not represented by counsel:

The party that filed the initial pleading resulting in the trial/evidentiary hearing being set will present his/her case first. The petitioning party may present his/her own testimony, that is, speak directly to the Court, and/or call witnesses, including the opposing party.

The procedure for questioning a witness is as follows:

1. Direct Examination: The petitioning party asks the witness questions, or acts as a witness and provides testimony directly to the Court.
2. Cross-Examination: The opposing party may ask the witness questions.
3. Re-Direct Examination: The petitioning party may ask the witness follow-up questions but may not raise any new issues with the witness at this point.

SUPERIOR COURT OF ARIZONA
MARICOPA COUNTY

FC 2007-071103

04/25/2013

When a party calls a witness, the party will be allowed to ask the witness one question at a time that can be answered yes or no. This is not the time for the party to provide his/her own testimony. The party will need to make a mental or written note of the answers the witness provided that he/she does not agree with, and the party will be given an opportunity to provide his/her own testimony after the witness is done testifying. The party will not be allowed to ask a witness a question and immediately thereafter provide commentary. The parties are therefore advised to bring a pen and paper to all hearings.

After the petitioning party presents his/her case, the opposing party will be allowed to present his/her case in the same manner.

Information regarding exhibits for parties not represented by counsel:

You will need to tell the Court during the hearing that you have exhibit 1, for example. You will need to explain to the Court the relevance of exhibit 1. You will then need to say to the Court, "I offer exhibit 1 into evidence". The other party will likely be given an opportunity to make a legal objection to the entry of the exhibit into evidence. If no objection is made, or if the objection is overruled by the Court, the exhibit will come into evidence. (If an objection is sustained, the exhibit will not come into evidence.) You must follow this procedure for every exhibit that you wish the Court to see. The Court will only review exhibits that have been received in evidence.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED as follows:

1. Counsel and/or the parties shall submit all exhibits to this Division (by placing the exhibit packet in the basket for incoming documents in the lobby) at least five (5) business days prior to the hearing. Exhibits shall not be filed at the Clerk of Court filing counter.
2. The exhibit packet shall contain a title page which states the case number, whether the exhibits are Petitioner's or Respondent's and the date for the Trial. Failure to clearly indicate which party is presenting the exhibits may result in the exhibits being marked incorrectly.
3. Each exhibit shall be stapled if it contains more than one page and shall be clearly separated from the other exhibits, preferably by placing a colored page in between each exhibit. Failure to clearly separate each exhibit may result in the exhibits being marked differently than counsel and/or the parties intended, such as multiple exhibits being marked as one exhibit.
4. Exhibits will be marked in numerical order, most likely in the order received. The parties will receive an exhibit worksheet at the time of hearing which will be the master list.

SUPERIOR COURT OF ARIZONA
MARICOPA COUNTY

FC 2007-071103

5. Duplicate exhibits shall not be presented.

6. Each party shall provide the adverse party with a separate copy of all exhibits. Each party should keep a copy of the exhibits for themselves as exhibits turned into the Court are kept by the Court. Copies of exhibits may be obtained from the Exhibits Department at the Customer Service Center after conclusion of the hearing.

Counsel and/or the parties are reminded of their obligation to give prompt notice of any settlement to the Court as required by Rule 70, A.R.F.L.P.

WARNING:

Failure of counsel and/or either party to appear at the time of hearing, shall in the absence of good cause shown result in the imposition of any and all available sanctions pursuant to Rule 70(D), A.R.F.L.P. and Local Rules 6.2(e) and 6.9(b), including proceeding to hear this matter by default based upon the evidence presented by the appearing party. The Court may issue warrant for the arrest of the non-appearing party. If both parties fail to appear, the entire case, or pending pleadings, may be dismissed without further notice to either party.

3:46 p.m. Matter concludes.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED signing this minute entry as a formal order of the Court pursuant to Rule 81, Arizona Rules of Family Law Procedure.
