DR 1987-091724

Counsel for the State advises the Court of the State's position and recommendations.

Kevin Scott Whitfield, having previously been sworn, now testifies.

Discussion is held.

Based on the matters presented,

THE COURT FINDS that there is a continuing and substantial change in the circumstances warranting the stopping of the Order of Assignment.

The Court's further findings and orders are as contained in the Order to Terminate Order of Assignment.

IT IS ORDERED approving and settling formal written Order to Terminate Order of Assignment which is signed by the Court this date.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED directing the Support Payment Clearinghouse to immediately disburse any monies withheld or in suspense to Obligor/Father.

10:57 a.m. Hearing concludes.

FILED: Order to Terminate Order of Assignment; Order of Assignment; Current Employer Information Sheet.
